WEBINAR

Personal Stories of Becoming a Leader in Early Childhood Education

Oct. 27th

2:30 pm to 3:30 pm EST

Angielena Williams

Angielena Williams is the Senior Project Manager of Early Care & Learning for the State of Indiana. Until recently, she was the Director of the early childhood education program at Martin University, where she is an adjunct instructor.

Dr. Brian Boyd

Dr. Brian Boyd is the C. Friday Distinguished Professor in Education in the University of North Carolina School of Education. He is also the Director of the Juniper Gardens Children's Project at the University of Kansas. As Director of a center rooted in community-based, applied research, he has been heavily engaged in research involving the most vulnerable and often marginalized populations. His more recent work has focused on how implicit bias and race issues affect the lives and outcomes of children of color, including those with disabilities.

Margo Ford Crosby

Margo Ford is the Director of PreK and Before/After School at the Alamance-Burlington School System's Early Learning Community in Graham, NC.
